Tippie Buddies Global Ambassador

Tippie Buddies Global Ambassadors work with the Assistant Director of Global Programs to coordinate Tippie Buddies events and act as a mentor to the international students that participate in the Tippie Buddies program. This is a paid position that averages 2-10 hours per week with potential evening hours required for events.

Responsibilities include:

- Plan and lead monthly large group meetings and activities for Tippie Buddies.
- Conduct regular check-ins on buddy pairs to ensure they are meeting.
- Reach out to current business and pre-business international students to encourage engagement with international student programming.
- Act as informal mentor to international students involved in Tippie Buddies.
- Collaborate and promote ISSE activities and other student organizations on campus.
- Attend a weekly meeting with Assistant Director of Global Programs.
- Meet with Global Engagement Student Advisory Board as needed.

Required Qualifications:

- Admission to the Tippie College of Business.
- Good academic standing.
- Past or current participation in Tippie Buddies.
- Ability to speak articulately and confidence speaking in front of large and small groups of peers.
- Excellent organization skills and willingness to commit to calendar of events.
- Demonstrates ability to work as a team, independently, take initiative, and provide/receive feedback.
- Minimum of one full academic year remaining at UI.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Enrolled in the Tippie College of Business with international student status.
- Participation in other Tippie or UI student organizations.

How to apply:

Send a copy of your resume and a cover letter that outlines your current and past involvement at Iowa and includes details on why you are interested in this position to sydney-johnson@uiowa.edu.

Deadline: Monday, April 8, 2024

Email Sydney Johnson (sydney-johnson@uiowa.edu) in the Tippie Undergraduate Program Office any questions.

Interviews will occur the last week of April.