

University of Iowa - Business School's Sample Itinerary

Austral Group has prepared a sample trip itinerary to Athens (Greece) below which highlights several potential companies and industries that we believe would be great organizations for your students to visit during their international experience with real life exposure to a variety of international sectors and functions.

Please note that the itinerary below features only a sample of our potential contacts for your program. We will work diligently to match the quality of the business meetings presented here, but please keep in mind that these companies are subject to executive availability.
